Anti-Communist Group Honors J. Edgar Hoover

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, received a "Vigilant Patriot Award" from the All-American Conference to Combat Communism yesterday for efforts "on behalf of the extension of freedom."

Hoover was cited for an article called "One Nation's Response to Communism," which was translated and distributed abroad by the United States Information Agency.

Other recipients were Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) for a Senate address, Air Force Gen. C. P. Cabell for a talk before the Dallas (Tex.) Council of World Affairs; Richard Arens, former staff director of the House Un-American Activities Committee, for a public information program, and Robert J. Hartman of the Los Angeles Washington Bureau for an article on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The Conference met at the Army and Navy Club.
